T tdhaemol Apr 21, 2025, 5:14 PM

thank you so much

G Me Apr 21, 2025, 5:43 PM

I have delivered the project along with the final file for your review.

If you require any changes, please let me know, and I'll be happy to make them. The process will continue until everything is finalized.

T tdhaemol Apr 21, 2025, 9:15 PM

Thank you very much for your efforts and your work. As mentioned, everything looks great and is working well. However, many models from the Excel file are still missing, and they are not being filtered based on the questions we ask.

We absolutely need to integrate a feature in the admin panel that allows us to assign the answers for each model based on the categories and related questions. Otherwise, all the filtering questions are pointless if we can't use them to narrow down the models.

I have also created a Word document to clarify and finalize the remaining details. Once that's done, we'll be ready to move forward and begin the next project.

Thank you once again!
